

Keynotes Panel

*Compassion - Human to Human Health Care

8:45 - 9:15 a.m.

Location: Adam Room

*Building Compassionate Communities

9:15 - 10 a.m.

Location: Adam Room

**Simultaneous interpretation in French will be available*

Healthy break 10 - 10:30 a.m.

10:30 – noon – panels, workshops, presentations

Room 1

Community Partnerships in Long Term Care: Cycling Without Age & Dance is BEST

Room 2

Volunteering in Health Care: Providing for Unmet Needs

Room 3

Ontario's Centre for Learning, Research and Innovation in Long-Term Care :
Spreading Evidence-Based and Leading Practices Across Ontario's Long Term Care Homes

Room 4

Spirituality in Nursing Education:
A Necessary Ingredient in Providing Holistic Care

Defining, Integrating and Measuring Quality Spiritual Care

Room 5

Be Kind.
Make a Difference

How our State and Stage of Consciousness Influences the Quality, Effectiveness and Joy We Take in our Work: Insights from Spiritual/Secular Awakening Research

Room 6

Improv Your Communications

Room 7

Megamorphosis: Organized
Chaos Using Human-Centred
Design Thinking

A Quantitative Perspective on Complex Project Leadership in Health Care: Vector Theory

Five Key Opportunities for Health Care Leaders to Support Person and Family-Centred Care

Daughters in the Workplace

Room 8

Path to Home
Passport: Do you have your passport?

A Nurse-Run Program in Primary
Care for Chronic Pain Patients:
Results of a Pilot Program

Improving End of Life
Care in the Community
Using RESPECT

Provision of Collaborative Care that Supports Self-Management:
Current Status and Future Directions

Room 9

Why Speech-Language Pathology
Services are Integral in Palliative
End of Life Care

One Bite at a Time: Implementing the International Dysphagia Diet Standardization
Initiative (IDDSI) at Bruyère Continuing Care

Have Your Cake and Eat It Too:
The Ethics and Pragmatics of Complex Dysphagia Management

Lunch noon - 1 p.m.

Indigenous Health and Wellness in Canada During a time of Reconciliation

Time: 1 - 2:15 p.m.

Location: Adam Room

Healthy break 2:15 - 2:30 p.m.

2:30 - 4 p.m. – panels, workshops, presentations

Room 1	Towards the Implementation of Supervised Injection Services in Ottawa, Canada
Room 2	Getting the Most from Your Health Care Appointment	Caregivers: Critical Support for the Patient's Well-Being
Room 3	Using Technology to Connect People with Disabilities
Room 4	Aesthetic Deprivation: The Role of the Arts in a Large Teaching Hospital	The Integral Role of Music and the Music Therapist in Dementia Care
Room 5	Health Care disparities in the North A time for Indigenous led transformation
Room 6	A Sudden Surge in Refugee Health Care Needs: A Case-Based Workshop on Trauma Informed Care of Syrian Newcomers in Ottawa (2016)
Room 7	Humanizing Health Care in the Workplace: How Your Culture Can Make or Break an Integrated Service Delivery Model
Room 8	Living the Mission through Volunteering: Gathering and Sharing the Life Histories of Our Sisters of Charity	Mission Impossible: Keeping 4,000 Staff Interested and Aware of our Mission
Room 9 These presentations will be in French only	The Humanist Perspective of Nursing Executives' Quality of Life at Work: A Phenomenological Research	REVIVRE! Achieving Person-Centred Long-Term Care through Volunteering	E-Learning in Long-Term Care: The Passport to Change

*Finding Meaning in the Experience of Dementia:
A Spiritual Perspective Challenging Myths and Social Expectations

Time: 4:15 - 5:00 p.m.

Location: Adam Room

Rev. Elizabeth MacKinlay, Anglican Church of Australia; School of Theology, Charles Sturt University

*Palliative Care: Where Competencies and Compassion Meet

Time: 5 - 7 p.m.

Location: Adam Room

Dr. José Pereira, MBChB DA CCFP MSc(MEd), director, Research, College of Family Physicians of Canada

*Simultaneous interpretation in French will be available

Keynote Panel

Medically-Assisted Dying and Humane End of Life Care: Key Ethical Issues and Considerations

Time: 8:05 - 8:50 a.m.

Location: Adam Room

(Will be delivered in French, with simultaneous interpretation available)

Didier Caenepeel, O.P., Ph. D. (Phys.), Ph. D. (Th.), Faculty of Theology, Dominican University College

This presentation will be followed by a Panel Discussion

Time: 8:50 - 10:30 a.m.

Location: Adam Room

Healthy break 10:30 - 11 a.m.

11 – 12:30 p.m. – panels, workshops, presentations

Room 1	Facing a Silver Tsunami: Approaching Exceptional Dying and What We Have Learned from Our Neighbours	Working Effectively with LGBT Clients
Room 2	Technology and Design for Improved Health Care, Rehabilitation and Aging
Room 3	Managed Alcohol and Targeted Engagement and Diversion: An Innovative Approach to Health Care at Shepherds of Good Hope
Room 4	Building Capacity: An Innovative Service Delivery Model Designed to Enhance the Patient and Resident Experience
Room 5	Exploring Family Dynamics When Living With Dementia	Approaching End of Life Together: Families, Legacy and Loss
Room 6	Both Sides of the Bed: Using Data to Improve Patient and Carer Experiences
Room 7	Supporting Patients, Residents, Health Care Professionals and Families in Meaningful, Relationship-Centred and Facilitated Conversations about Their Care
Room 8	Good Night Ambassador: Volunteer-Driven Delirium Prevention Quality Improvement Initiative on an In-Patient Palliative Care Unit	Examining Lived Experiences of Singing in a Bereavement-Support Music Therapy Group	Morning Glory Memory Keeper	Talking About Advanced Care Planning
Room 9	Bundling Nursing Always Practices	Always Practices: Are We Sustaining our Stride?	The Use of a Nurse Champion Model to Drive Change in Practice and Improve Patient Outcomes	Telerehabilitation: Putting Rehabilitation into the Home Setting with Support from Health Care Professionals

Lunch 12:30 - 1:30 p.m.

1:30 - 3 p.m. – panels, workshops, presentations

Room 1 Presentation in French only	Supporting a Person at End of Life and Hearing Their Suffering: Reflecting on Accompanying Them to the School of Oscar and the Lady in Pink
Room 2	Spreading and Scaling an Approach to Person-Centred Dementia Care across Canada
Room 3	Health Innovation in the Ottawa Region
Room 4	Organization-Level Principles and Practices to Support Spiritual Care at the End of Life	Strengthening the Capacity of Volunteers to Address Anticipatory Grief, Loss and Bereavement
Room 5	Integrity vs Autonomy: Palliative Care in a World with Medically-Assisted Dying (MAiD)
Room 6	Rethinking Dementia: The Role of Music and Art in Enhancing the Lives of Patients and Residents in Care
Room 7	Finding Meaning in the Experience of Dementia: The Place of Spiritual Reminiscence
Room 8	Priorities for Person-Centred Care among Marginalized People Who Use Drugs in Ottawa, Canada
Room 9	Sprouting Compassionate Communities in B.C. through a Seed Grant Program: A Needed Shift in Palliative Care	Community Engagement 2.0: Eight Enablers of Meaningful Engagement	Harnessing the Power of a New Age of Volunteers

Healthy break 3 - 3:15 p.m.

Closing Remarks	*We're All in This Together: Enriching Care for Everybody          Mike Nolan, BEd, MA, MSc, PhD RGN, RMN, Gerontological Nursing, University of Sheffield	Time: 3:15 - 4 p.m.	Location: Adam Room
-----------------	---	---------------------	---------------------

**Simultaneous interpretation in French will be available*